RULES FOR SAULT STE. MARIE POLICE AUCTIONS

A bid by any person shall be conclusive proof the person is acquainted with these conditions of sale and has agreed to be bound by them.

Typically these items are seized, forfeited, or found and should be considered "used" unless otherwise noted. All items are as is with no warranty expressed or implied.

A description and picture(s) accompany each auction listing. While we endeavor to accurately describe and portray each item the Sault Ste. Marie Police Service cannot supply the type of information a buyer might expect from a manufacturer or owner.

Do not make assumptions regarding any features, functionality or additional parts/accessories not pictured or described. The original manufacturers for some items may consider the item old or out of date and therefore no longer provide customer support for the item.

Though all written descriptions are believed to be correct, the Sault Ste. Marie Police Service makes no warranty or representation of any kind with respect to the property and in no event shall be held responsible for having made or implied any warranty of description, genuineness, authorship, attribution, providence, period, culture, source, origin, condition, etc.

If the Sault Ste. Marie Police Service discovers an item is listed incorrectly, recalled or other important information about the product is learned, the Sault Ste. Marie Police Service reserves the right to remove the item and/or cancel any bids or transactions.

In an effort to keep the auction site free from mischievous bidders (those who bid on items with no intention of paying for them), we reserve the right to cancel bids and/or restrict the use of the site.

If you place bids on multiple items, you must complete each transaction on all items won. Some items may indicate alternate payments by certified cheque or money order. Auction items may have alternate arrangements for specific viewings and payments, i.e. vehicles or large items.

Requests to remove a bid is prohibited and the account will be flagged. We do not allow multiple accounts from the same person.

Items are sold in 'as is' condition. NO RETURNS are accepted.
