Police Services Board Announces New Chair and Vice Chair

On July 11, 2025, the Sault Ste. Marie Police Services Board was advised of the resignations of Chair John Bruno and Vice Chair Ian MacKenzie, effective immediately. The Board expresses its gratitude to both members for their service. We extend our best wishes as they move on to future endeavours.

At a meeting held on the morning of July 12, 2025, the Board elected Nuala Kenny as its new Chair and Matthew Shoemaker as Vice Chair for the remainder of the current term. New provincial appointees will be determined at a later date and announced once appointments are finalized.

The Board remains fully committed to its mandate of ensuring adequate and effective policing is provided to the residents of Sault Ste. Marie and Prince Township. One of the Board's key priorities continues to be the selection of a new Chief of Police for the Sault Ste. Marie Police Service. This process is underway and is being conducted with diligence and care to ensure the best leadership for our community.
